Aspiring User Interface Designer, Motion Designer, and occasional Digital Doodler... Ethan Sinica, R.I.T. New Media Design graduate.

In day-to-day life I look to make people think and laugh. I aim to do that in my design work as well.

Through my education and personal studies I've become proficient in Illustrator, Photoshop, After Effects, Premiere Pro, Cinema 4D, and Figma. On a related note, Javascript is also quite satisfying to me. I'm also well-versed in HTML and CSS as is shown through my portfolio website.
